

A- | A | A+ | Screen Reader | Skip to main content |अ
AOfficial login | Consumer login

Government of India

Department of Consumer Affairs

National Consumer Helpline (NCH) 2.0

Home / Consumer Rights

Consumer Rights Guaranteed Under the Act

1
1
(

What are the rights guaranteed under the Consumer Protection Act?

The Act ensures protection, transparency, choice, fair treatment, and support for all consumers across India.

The Consumer Protection Act guarantees the following six Consumer Rights:

Right to Safety

Protection against the marketing of goods and services hazardous to life and property.

Right to be Informed

Right to know product quality, quantity, purity, price, and standards to prevent unfair trade practices.

Right to Choose

Right to access a variety of goods & services at competitive prices.

Right to be Heard

Right to fair hearing and assurance that concerns will receive appropriate consideration.

Right to Redressal

Right to seek remedy against unfair or restrictive trade practices and exploitation.

Right to Consumer Education

Right to receive knowledge & awareness to make informed consumer decisions.

Multiple ways to lodge grievances

